THE JOHN M. BOTIS AND BECKHAM SUIT. The Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday in the case of Stearns, Beckham and Botts, granting the petition for a rehearing upon a single point : that is whether Stearns's and Botts's representatives shall be allowed compensation for the value of the Confederate money paid to Beckham.

This important and interesting case, decided by the Supreme Court of Appeals on 14th of March, grew out of a contract dated the 29th November, 1862, by which Franklin Stearns and the late John M. Botts claimed to have purchased of James A. Beckham, of the county of Culpeper, his splendid landed estate called "Auburn," situate in that county, and some personal property, at the gross price of $100,-000, cash, payable in Confederate money. The suit was a bill filed by Stearns and the beirs of Mr. Botts against the heurs of Beckham to enforce the execution of the contract for the sale by having the title conveyed to them, they alleging payment of all the purchase-money. The defence, in the main, was that at the date of the contract Beckham was mentally incompetent to enter into a contract of such magnitude, and that it was procured and executed under such circumstances that a court of equity, according to the principles governing its jurisdiction, could not lend its aid to en-

THE PIOUS FRAUD, AGAIN.

The plous fraud, whose preaching has been so much talked about, and who figured in Richmond as well as in cities north and south of us, has turued up again, and this time in Emporia, Lyon county, Kansas. The reverend fraud still retains his bag of wonderful sermons, and although a plausible story and forged papers the newspapers have faithfully followed weather, southerly winds veering to west-in up he still dupes the people, and erly, stationary or higher temperature, and wherever he goes makes them believe that he is the eloquent divine he has so often represented himself to be. His aliases now are: The Rev. Walter H. Bruce, alias Rev. Darling R. Phillips, alias Rev. D. D. Row-land, alias Rev. Walter H. H. Templeton, alias Rev. Duffield, alias Rev. Stephen tions in that place: For several weeks a young "Scotchman," under the name of " Rev. Walter H. Bruce,' has been discoursing from the pulpit of the Baptist church in this city to the great edification of his hearers. He attracted such crowds that the chapel would not accommodate the people, and on Sunday before last he was invited to occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church, and did so. Institution of the Rebekah Lodge .- The new lodge of Rebekah—the only one in the State—was instituted with imposing ceremonies last night at Odd-Fellows' Hall by Past Grand Master Hugh Latham, P. G. R.; Grand Representative James B. Blanks, P. G. M.; Grand Chaplain Waters, and other grand officers. After the institution, the lodge, with their nvited guests, partook of one of the finest collations ever spread in Manchester. The ateness of the hour at which this is written 12 o'clock midnight) prevents such an extended notice as the occasion demands. The banquet was still in progress. There were present about one hundred and twenty-five persons, one third of whom are ladies. There are many grand representatives present, and the scene is brilliant, and the happiest one in the history of Odd-Fellowship in the State. The ladies entered upon the work with the spirit of veterans, and a glorious future is predicted for the lodge. In justice to the grand event, which this but feebly mentions, the reporter takes the liberty of saying, to be continued in our next.

The Manchester Delegation .- The Man chester Odd-Fellows are represented in the Odd-Fellows' Widows' and Orphans' Relief Association of Virginia by Thomas W. this time only one prisoner in the jail of Chesterfield Court-house besides Rock and Hardin, sent at the April term of the court. That one is Peter Jamison, of Manchester, or at least formerly of Manchester." Jami son was sent to the poor-house just before Manchester was cut off from the county and the question of who should maintain him was the occasion of a suit between city and county almost as memorable as that of Jaryndyce vs. Jaryndyce, or Burdell vs. Pickwick. It cost enough to pension Peter for his natural life, and was finally settled by arbitrators from Richmond and Peters-

Peter has on several occasions assaulted his fellow-paupers, but is generally inoffensive. His present incarceration is thus accounted for. He is too violent and dangerous to be kept at the poor-house, the authorities refuse to receive him in the insane asylum, and as there is no legal warrant or excuse for his instant execution he is compelled to be kept in jail pro bono publico.

The Courts .- The County Court has adourned after an unimportant session. The April term of the Hustings Cour will commence Monday. The Senior Justice will hold a court this morning for the trial of civil warrants.

Operations Commenced .- The work of making bricks has commenced at the yard of Messrs. Davis & Ragland, on the corner of Eighth and McDonough streets. Mr. E. B. Dunsford, one of the oldest managers in the business, has charge of the yard.

Blooded Stock .- There was a fine exhibition of Chesterfield-raised blooded stock on the Holly Springs farm of Major Joseph Walker yesterday. There was a large attendance from this city, Richmond, and vicinity. The speed and appearance of the horses was favorably commented on.

Alarm of Fire .- The alarm of fire yesterday evening was caused by the burning of a chimney on Decatur street near Ninth. The Alert Hook-and-Ladder were promptly on hand.

Heard from Again .- Some years ago negro calling himself Dr. George Thomas, the iron man," who changed the location of his heart, bent iron bars over his muscle, and performed other wonderful feats, gave several exhibitions in Manchester. He articles on hand, besides refreshments of has been heard from again, and is in the jail of Charlotte, N. C., for assault on a colored woman. This sad fate has overtaken the Doctor in Petersburg, and in fact At the lecture-room of the Grace-Street in every town where there was a jail that MATTINGS. > The Revivals .- The meetings at the Methodist and colored Baptist church continue unabated in interest and without diminution in attendance. At the first named Rev. Dr. Rosser preaches to-night.

A RELIABLE ESTABLISHMENT .- The first step to be taken when you wish to make purchases is to find times in its sty es and fashions. To all in need of Shoes, Boots, Gaiters, or Slippers we heartly recommend J. A. GRIGG, corner of Tenth and Main streets, as a merchant of strict integrity, and one who can please the most fastidious both in style and price.

LADY CAKE.-Take three quarters of a cup of butter, besten to a cream, add two cups of white sugar, one cap of sweet milk, four eggs beaten stiff, and three cups of flour, with two teaspoonfuls of DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER mixed with the flour dry, and passed through a sieve.
